

2019

IEC Electronique is managed by Pascal CHAMBAUT,
Who pursues the Work of his uncle founder since 1983

2003

IEC Electronique takes over Stöckli company (knobs manufacturer).

1995

IEC Electronique takes over R.E.S. company (switches manufacturer), allowing to extend product range

&

IEC Electronique Rotary Switches are installed on all AIRBUS programs

1969

IEC Electronique confirms its success and continues its collaboration with the main actors of aeronautics its rotary switches equip most of French planes, notably Concorde

1965

Creation of IEC Electronique

1958

The company sets up its workshop in Monaco Principality

1955

Rotary Switches equips the SE210 Caravelle
of Sud Aviation for its first flight.

The company enters the military aeronautic market with Dassault Aviation's Mirage III

After second World War, Henri CHAMBAUT, engineer from the "Art et Métiers", fills Patents for rotary switches and creates Les commutateurs Chambaut company
These switches are used for military activity, railway and special machines fields